Dear Parents

Class 2 French Café

On Wednesday 15th March, for one afternoon only, Class 2 will be transformed into a French Café. Parents and friends of pupils in Class 2 are invited to come along and take a table from 1.30pm.

This term, Class 3 have been taking part in weekly Samba music classes under the expert instruction of Mr Rayner from NMPAT, which will culminate in a performance to the rest of the school and parents on Tuesday 21st March at 9.45am. All parents are invited, and if you would like to attend please stay after morning drop-off as the PTFA will be serving coffee from 9am onwards.

Reception Outside Area

Volunteers are still welcome to come and help the PTFA working party on Wednesday 15th March, when the Reception Class outside area receives its big makeover. Whether you can paint a fence, assemble play equipment or just sweep up Class 1 needs you!

Comic Relief

On Friday 24th March, all pupils are invited to participate in a fundraising treasure hunt that will take place around the school during the school day. To take part please bring a minimum £1 donation for Comic Relief, and children may of course wear their red noses.

NSPCC Sponsorship

A big "well done" to all the children who collected sponsorship money for the NSPCC and raised a fantastic £589.00 – Thank you. If you have some sponsor money outstanding you can still bring it in.

Book Donations

We are grateful to everyone who has brought in books for the school library recently. We have been thrilled with the quantity and quality of the donations and our lovely volunteer librarian, Mrs Rock, is gradually working her way through them to get them on the shelves. However, this is proving to be quite a big task. Therefore, could we please ask that no more books are brought in for the time being whilst the backlog is cleared? Thank you.

Celebration Worship

Please note that there will be no celebration worship on Friday 17th March.

Revd Duncan Beet

As you may know, Revd Beet is moving to a new parish in Leicestershire and his last service in Sywell will be on Sunday 26th March.
